from the pastor

One way Satan tempts us is to cause us to go to one extreme ... by making us think we've gone to the other!

Have you ever seen the extremely skinny person who gets more unhealthy because they're afraid of getting fat? The same can happen in the spiritual realm.

"I don't want to become a religious fanatic," might mean that you're already a lackadaisical Christian worshipping money or pleasure instead of God.

"I don't want to be too hard on my kids," might mean you're way to permissive of disobedience by them.

"Now, I can't get too consumed with work," might mean you're lazy, while, "I can't neglect my job," might mean you're neglecting your family.

"I don't want people to walk all over me," might mean you're a tyrant, and the man who says, "I don't want to be dictatorial," might not be leading his family at all.

Satan is very tricky ... and for that reason we should all examine ourselves ... perhaps we need to move closer to the thing we fear, and learn to fear the opposite thing.

The skinny person needs to get nourishment, not diet more.

What do you fear? Are you being deceived by it ... and making the opposite mistake?
