from the pastor

What's the most dangerous place in the world today? Some would say driving down a road in Iraq as an American. But they would be wrong. The most dangerous place in the world is a Christian who is living with unconfessed or unrepented sin in his life.

We Christians all sin.

Sounds awful, but its true. As a matter of fact, John writes to Christians that if we say we have no sin, we're a liar, and the truth is not in us (1 John 1:8,10).

But, when a Christian sins, God generally does one or more of the following:

1. He allows natural consequences to occur ... he doesn't protect us from the consequence of our error.
2. He Himself causes problems for us ... He might stir up our enemies, send us a sickness or make our job, family or finances start experiencing bad times.
3. He opens up the protection around us so that Satan, who wants you dead anyway, is free to wreak havoc in your life.
4. He distresses our Spirit ... takes away our joy, our peace, and replaces that with guilt and conviction.
5. He, in extreme situations, might even bring about our physical death so that we can't continue on that path.

Pretty scary stuff!

A soldier in Iraq can hope to get back to America and thus return to safety. Here's what we need to do when we're in the danger land of sin:

1. Confess or admit we did wrong. Maybe you're still rationalizing, making excuses, saying it isn't a sin, when you know it is. You did wrong, admit it!
2. Repent of willful sin. Maybe you know it's wrong but you've chosen to just go on willfully with a devil may care attitude. Repentance means changing your mind ... determining to go the other way. You may not be able to conquer that sin in an instant, but in an instant you determine you want it conquered.

Unfortunately, confession and repentance may not erase every consequence of our sin ... but it does put us back under God's protection and providential care. If you have unconfessed or unrepentant sin in your life ... you're in more danger than a soldier on a road in Iraq! Get home to God now!
