from the pastor

It's very dangerous to base things on your feelings. But, thank God, the Christian life is not devoid of feeling.

Last Sunday evening, I was tremendously enjoying our praise and worship time. At first, I thought it was because I had been ill, and now was finally back to being able to sing and praise God.

God just seemed so close.

But I discovered I was not the only one who felt that way. Many were touched by our service that night.

It has always perplexed me how that we can sing the same songs, but sometimes God just moves in a special way. In a refreshing way. In an emotional way.

He doesn't always; and that doesn't mean something's wrong. Faith means worshipping and praising out of trust rather than out of emotion.

But thank God sometimes He does let us feel His presence experientially. How wonderful it will be on the day that our faith ends in sight, and we are ever near Him, always feeling Him, able to touch Him and see Him like never before.

Till then, thank you God for the special showers of blessings you send. And for faith that gives us assurance even when the skies are hot without any clouds at all. Thank you for faith, and for experience.

Pastor Brian Tibbs

lifegroups

Sunday, Aug. 28 was a banana split! (This means it was outstanding.)

LifeGroups had 150 in attendance! Wow! This beats our highest of 138 on Sunday, July 24.

We invite each of you to join us next Sunday at 9:30 a.m. (Session 1) or at 11:45 a.m. (Session 2) for the Bring a Friend promotion. If everyone brought a friend, we would be overflowing—which would be awesome.

LifeGroups Director Gary Allen

"And let us not grow weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap if we do not faint (lose heart)."
—Gal. 6:9 (NKJV)
