from the pastor

Politics aside, I really think we need to pray for our President.

I really started to think about that this week, and it was interesting that Gary Allen mentioned the same thing to me Wednesday night.

Regardless whether you're a Republican, a Democrat or an Independent like me, and regardless whether we agree with everything he's done while in office (I can't think of anyone with whom I'd have 100% agreement), this man has had to preside over two of the worst disasters in American history. And despite extremists' political rants, like any decent American he does care about these things, just like you and I do. Only it's his job to make things right. Could you imagine having that responsibility? We can only imagine what a weight that is to carry!

This past week the President asked us to pray for the Katrina victims. Today, I'm asking you to pray for him. He is our President and it is our responsibility as Christians to lift him up in prayer.

In fact, God Himself commands us to do so: "Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority ... " 1 Tim. 2:1-2a (NKJV).

Pray for wisdom, strength, encouragement and comfort for George Bush. May God bless you in return.

Pastor Brian Tibbs

lifegroups

Bring a Friend month is off and running and we have some great things happening to share with you.

The Agape class (Becky Hammond and David Trotter) had 25 in class, which is their highest number this year.

The High School class (Robert and Christina Birke) had 10 in both sessions which is a high for them this year!

The Adult class (Jeff Crouch and Skip Mutschler) had their best number this year with 21.

Our total number for both sessions was 139, which is also our second best number for this year. Our previous high was 150 which was the last week of August.

Everyone is welcome to join us in LifeGroups weekly and don't forget to "bring a friend" with you.

LifeGroups Director Gary Allen

"And let us not grow weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap if we do not faint (lose heart)." —Gal. 6:9 (NKJV)
